has risen since then. Children remain more likely than adults to live in low income households. 40% ■ The rate for the overall population ■ Additional to the rate for the overall population 35% Proportion of children in households below 60% of median income after deducting 30% 25% housing costs 20% 15% 10% 5% 0% 2000/01 1994/95 1995/96 1997/98 1999/00 2001/02 2004/05 2005/06 2007/08 2008/09 1996/97 1998/99 2002/03 2003/04 2006/07 Source: Households Below Average Income, DWP; UK; updated Sep 2010

The proportion of children in low-income households was falling up to 2004/05 but